

8 Questions to Ask to Help Determine if Virtual Credit Cards Right for Your Nonprofit

1. Do you currently pay vendors primarily by check?
2. Do you use internal staff to print, stuff & mail checks?
3. Do you spend significant dollars in any of the following categories: marketing, advertising, meetings & travel, software or professional services?
4. Do employees use credit cards to make purchases on behalf of the organization?
5. Is the volume of online purchases growing?
6. Are you interested in additional controls you can implement to prevent payment fraud?
7. Do you make recurring payments to any vendors?
8. Does your organization have a desire to operate 'greener'?

If you answered yes to four or more questions, virtual cards might be a great fit for you. Download our free publication - The Nonprofit CFO's Guide to Virtual Credit Cards – to learn how you can implement a successful virtual card program in as little as 90 days.